

VOTING IN THE NOVEMBER PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION (NEW YORK)

As a service to our members, the Tikkun Olam Team has gathered together information about the upcoming November election.

There are three ways to vote:

1. Mail-in Absentee Ballot

- Advantages: Voters avoid being in crowds and standing on possibly long lines at the polls
- Disadvantage: Currently, there are fears that delays in the mail service and in counting ballots could lead to not counting some of these votes

2. In-person early voting from Saturday, October 24 – Sunday, November 1

- Advantages: Voters will probably face only small crowds and short lines; ballots will be counted soon after voting
- Disadvantage: Physical distancing for covid-19 could still be difficult

3. In-person voting on November 3

- Advantage: Ballots will be immediately counted
- Disadvantage: Crowding and long lines will make physical distancing for covid-19 very difficult

At this time, there are two actions you can take to be ready to vote:

1. Register to vote, if necessary
2. Apply for an absentee ballot. Because the voting rules and covid-19 landscape are changing so rapidly these days, it is prudent to obtain an absentee ballot to have on hand even if you are currently planning to vote in person. Simply applying for an absentee ballot does not take away your option to vote in person. UPDATE: It looks like you may not even have to apply for the application - applications are arriving in the mail unrequested! [8/23/2020]

It is advisable to complete each step in the voting process as soon as possible, in order to avoid delays at the post office and vote counting sites.
